Happening at the Library

This month's Art Display features the Batik work of Janette Fecteau, Jessica Mensch, and Antoinette Karuna on our gallery walls, and a collaborative show titled "Art for Peace" on our portable displays.

National Canadian Film Day: Wednesday, April 16 at 7 pm. Screening Any Other Way: The Jackie Shane Story. "Jackie Shane, a jazz singer who rose to prominence in the 1960s as a Black transgender musician, had disappeared almost entirely from the public eye. Decades later, her work gets rediscovered and reassessed, giving her one last chance to be appreciated properly."

Health Care Options: With or Without a Family Care Provider. Thursday, April 24 at 2 pm. Learn what health care options are available to you in NS whether you have a family care provider or not. Learn how to get medication refills, referrals and in person appointments if you do not have a provider, and how to access your online medical information.

Author Reading with Lesley Crewe: Saturday, April 26 at 1 pm. Drop by and join us for an author reading with Lesley Crewe, as part of the Read by the Sea's Books on the Breeze program.
